Comfort is hard to describe. It's a sleeping kition next to a stove. It's that extra blanket on a cold night. It's a hammock on a summer afternoon.

It's also a Pullman room on an S.P. streamliner, and here's why: You have lots of space to relax in. You have all the privacy you want. You have individually controlled air conditioning. You have the wonderful full-length Pullman bed and clean white sheets every night. You have your own private toilet facilities. You have all the attentive personal service of a top-flight hotel. And you have the many recreational facilities of the Lounge Car, including games, refreshments and the stimulating conversation of congenial people.

Next time you travel on Southern Pacific, try the luxurious comfort of a Pullman room—roomette, bedroom, compartment, drawing room or suite. Also available: Pullman section space (upper and lower berths). You can reserve space in advance.

FREIGHT TRAVELS IN COMFORT, TOO
We handle freight gently and at low cost, too. On an average we move a ton of things for only 1.45 cents a mile. We have more miles of line serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. So, for fast, efficient and dependable freight service—whether carloads or I.C.I.—call our nearest agent.

EARLY this month, the West Coast's six millionth telephone was installed in the home of Master Sergeant (USMC) and Mrs. Lionel P. Williams in Barstow, California, by the Interstate Telegraph Company.

Back of the installation of this telephone is a dramatic story of one of the most intensive expansion programs ever undertaken by any industry in any section of the United States. It is a story of mass migration to the far West and the resultant impact upon all telephone companies in this area to meet unprecedented demands for new and expanded telephone facilities.

Now—
SIX MILLION TELEPHONES
on the Pacific Coast

The responsibility of providing telephone service for the Pacific Coast area is shared by more than 200 different telephone companies. We are proud to be a part of this vast communications network serving Western homes, business, and industry.

"open house" first grade in the Torrance area last week. The first grade room here was set up to demonstrate a perfect teaching situation as nearly as it is possible to attain. While the meeting was for other first-grade teachers throughout the district, this reporter could not help but feel that the parents themselves would have derived a lot of satisfaction from viewing the room and listening to the many teaching principles therein demonstrated. A little late, 'tis true, but we still want to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aldrich upon the arrival of their first child, a little girl born the last of August. The proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Aldrich, live on Pacific Coast Hwy.

Another visit from the stork was paid our community Sept. 9, when Philip Ray made his appearance at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. Philip is the first child for proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ray Falkenstein. He weighed in at a husky 9 pounds, 3 ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Falkenstein make their home in Westmoreland, but Mrs. Falkenstein, the former Margaret Tinkle, has been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinkle, Newton St., while waiting for the blessed event. Margaret and Phil are well known by the younger set here in Walteria since they both lived here until last year. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Falkenstein, also of Westmoreland.

Twenty of the Girl Scouts which meet at the Nannery home on Danaha St., had a very interesting trip recently when they were able to visit and tour a Lurline ship. Accompanying the girls were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wands, Mrs. Mary Olding, Mrs. Carl Cramer, Mrs. Nannery. After the tour, which was conducted by Mr. Sinclair, the girls returned home thoroughly enthused over the ocean-going life. By the way, the girls are going to sell Christmas cards this year to help finance their next summer camping trips. If any of you readers are interested in helping the girls along by purchasing the cards, contact Mrs. Nannery of Danaha St.

Ocasional there reaches Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Conger of Crickwood Ave. have returned from a wonderful trip they made to Mobile, Ala. for their vacation.

A great big welcome goes to Gary Penn, who has returned to Dalemead to stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Radtke while he attends another year at El Camino. Gary spent his summer with his parents back in Wisconsin.

More good news from the armed services was received by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taber of Hawthorne Blvd. last week, when they found out that their son, who is now stationed with a jet training school as an instructor, will receive his release from the Army and be back home as a city next March.

CONGREGATION GATHERS . . . Meeting at the site of the new First Lutheran Church Building Sunday afternoon, members and friends of the church participated in groundbreaking ceremonies for the first unit of the new edifice. The first unit, a $70,000 parish hall, will serve as a church sanctuary until the main unit is built. (Herald photo).

PTA Hosts Teachers, Principals At Lunch

By VIRGINIA JONES
DAVENPORT 6-1617

Top news this week is the good old school days — with many children wanting to attend school once again and some just a wee bit reluctant. Needless to say, the old grind has started once again.

To begin the school year, the executive board of Torrance Elementary PTA were hosts to the principals and teachers of the school at a beautifully appointed luncheon last Friday. Outstanding was the delicious food, but the place markers also gained "oh's" and "ah's." The markers were red paper school houses inscribed with each teacher's name. Board members from Kettler Knolls included Mesdames Olive Polick, Sally Ekersley, Jo Devenish and Mille West, who assisted in decorating and serving.

Arriving home just in time for the beginning of school was Steven Brown, baby brother Mark and mother and father Wilma and Larry Brown of 2099 Reynosa Dr., who returned in the wee hours Sunday morning from their three-week vacation trip. Their first stop was Redding, Calif., where they visited friends Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bailey. Another stop was at Vancouver, Wash., where Wilma's sister and husband were visited. Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Dye. Then on to Missoula, Mont., where they enjoyed a week of visiting with Larry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Brown. At Columbia Falls they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Davis, Wilma's sister and husband. A stop at Glacier Park was greatly enjoyed and then on to Fruitland Park, Ida., where they stayed for a week at the home of Wilma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Colwell. The trip home via Lake Tahoe ended the wonderful trip for the foursome.

Over at 2067 Reynosa Dr., the Norman Wainwright home is buzzing with last-minute preparation for school for their two.

just returned home in time for their week's vacation. Donnis, Norma Jean and parents Norman and Dorothy first visited San Francisco, taking in the sights with a cousin, Miss Sue Sperry. The quintet enjoyed dinner at Fisherman's Wharf, and saw the sights at the northern city. A visit with other cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dishman and family of Castro Valley proved enjoyable. Their main destination—Yosemite National Park—was a four-day camping site where relatives from Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Squire, were met and the fun began. The Firefall, Glacier Point, caves, lakes and the museum were just a few of the sights seen. They arrived at Huntington Lake to go fishing last week, with a 20-mile pack in trip to Kaiser Diggins, a truly exciting affair. Norman said the fishing was slow, but they sure had a lot of fun. We're really happy that all the vacationists enjoyed their trips—glad to have them all home again.

Throwing a different slant on vacations is John Hampton, of 1714 W. 236th St., who stayed home with the children and painted while wife Dorothy was visiting in Reno with two sisters. John says he really needs a rest and I imagine he does. Anyway, we think he's really a grand guy!

There were three birth days to celebrate at the Mervin McCutcheon home at 1710 W. 236th St. last week. Judith is now eight years old, Catherine is now six years old, and mother Betty is . . . ? Anyway, the children enjoyed a patio party with 19 children joining in the festivities. There were games, and refreshments with many gifts being received. McCutcheons recently enjoyed a gay week-end trip to San Diego where a picnic at the lagoon with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Okey, was delightful partly because they hadn't seen each other for ten years and much reminiscing was done.

Dorothy and "Buck" Buckalew and sons Steven and Stewart, of 1711 236th St., are home once again from their big trip to Iowa and Missouri. Traveling through Utah, Nevada, Omaha and Wyoming, the trip was a momentous one indeed for Dorothy, for it was her first trip in 22 years to Council Bluffs, Ia., where she was born. The Buckalews visited with relatives and friends there. When they arrived at St. Louis, Mo., more relatives were on hand to greet them, as it is "Buck's" birthday. They enjoyed a chance to visit with many people at a 28th wedding anniversary at a Norman Hixson, Tommy Kidman, Bob Ray, Son. On the return trip, a visit to

ON THE WAY . . . While Rev. Paul E. Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, looks on, Dr. Joe Ray, chairman of the church's building committee, turns a shovel of earth at groundbreaking ceremonies for a new edifice at Carson St. and Flower Sunday afternoon.

Boys Town, Neb., was on the agenda and a wonderful visit it was. They say that no one should miss a trip to Boys Town because it's truly a wonderful place. They toured many other states including Kansas, New Mexico, Texas, Arizona, Nevada and Oklahoma, before ending their 17-day trip.

Frank and Faye Curry are home also from a delightful two weeks' trip to Colorado. Grand Junction, Pueblo and Denver were the stopping points where the couple visited their parents, relatives, and many friends. Their son Bob left their 2031 Reynosa Dr. home Friday at 8 o'clock and arrived at Denver near midnight to be in on the festivities over Labor Day weekend. His trip via airliner was a grand.

A visitor to Kettler Knolls Mrs. Cora Milligan, mother of Gloria Hixson of 2054 Kathy Way, flew home this week to Alameda, Cal. after spending a delightful week visiting her daughter and family.

Another reminder that the school paper drive will be on hand fairly soon. So stack up those papers, kids, and keep looking for the paper drive date.

That traveling Stanton family from 28105 Palena Ave. really enjoyed their latest jaunt. To take advantage of the archery season, they took part in the latest deer hunt at Fortola, Calif. Traveling through Reno, Nev., they arrived at Fortola and camped with the Delbert Stanton family and the George Lamar family. The three families "roughed" it, bathing in the creek, cooking over fires, but all had fun. The deer was elusive, much to their disappointment, but they'll make up for that next time. On the return trip home, the group had a big family picnic at Lake Tahoe.

Iris and Matt Phillips and son Matthew, of 1943 Reynosa Dr. are on their vacation this week to Sequoia and Yosemite National Parks. We all wish them more about their trip next week.

A winner and marshmallow roast was the "treat" last week for Bill Polick, son of Lee and Olive Polick of 2080 Kathy Way, the event highlighting his seventh birthday. Aiding in the celebration were playmates De-vid Poote, Richard Grant, Ron-28th wedding anniversary at a
